Two hotels which possess every requirement of the person with inclinations toward modern conveniences and comfortable

Each hotel aims at supremacy

Each hotel presents accommodations and furniture the equal of which is found only in the homes of fine t and most exclusive character. Each hotel has a restaurant in connection which offers the finest the market affords, prepared by masters in the art of cooking.

The rates are exceedingly reasonable and monthly and yearly concessions are made.

One is convenient to the downtown district—one is located in the residential district. Each is in a class by itself. Investigate or write for particulars.

of the HOTEL BELLECLAIRE day and night.

It flies there for patriotic reasons

We just love that flag.

Why let it be seen only on the Fourth of July, Washington's Birthday, Lincoln's Birthday, and so forth?

We decided to show it every day in the year.

It is in a conspicuous place. The location of the HOTEL BELLECLAIRE-at a very pronounced bend in Broadway - permits thousands of people who walk or ride up and down this great thoroughfare to see it.

They like to look at it. They love it as much as we do. It is a beautiful, inspiring sight, particularly at

The electric lights at the base of the flag pole, shining softly on its stars and stripes, bring out in fine elief its wondrous beauty.

People stop on the street and look up at it. Motorists see it from far up and from far down Broadway. The universal comment is: "How beautiful!"

Who can look upon the American flag without feeling better for doing

America and the Belleclaire are he A and B for us. ROBERT D. BLACKMAN.
